Sacred Texts of the World is a 36-lecture series discussing a broad range of religious texts of seven major religions. On Friday, February 9, we will be screening lectures 3-6 in the series, pertaining to the Hindu and Sikh traditions. Dr. Grant Hardy is Professor of History and Religious Studies and Director of the Humanities Program at the University of North Carolina at Asheville. He earned his B.A. in Ancient Greek from Brigham Young University and his Ph.D. in Chinese Language and Literature from Yale University. Professor Hardy has received a wealth of awards and accolades for both his teaching and his scholarship.

3. What is Heard -- Upanishads
4. What is Remembered – Epics
5. Laws of Manu and Bhagavad-Gita
6. Related Traditions – Sikh Scriptures

These films are being screened courtesy of The Teaching Company, <http://www.thegreatcourses.com>.

Admission is free.
