Sacred Texts of the World is a 36-lecture series which discusses a broad range of religious texts of seven major religions. The professor, Grant Hardy, is a professor of History and Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina at Asheville. On Friday, June 8, we will be screening lectures 11-14 in the series, pertaining to the Jewish traditions:

11. Oral Torah – Mishnah and Talmud
12. Related Traditions – Zoroastrian Scriptures
13. The Three Baskets of Buddhism
14. Vinaya and Jitaka

These films are being screened courtesy of The Teaching Company, <http://www.thegreatcourses.com>.

Admission is free.
