Sacred Texts of the World is a 36-lecture series which discusses a broad range of religious texts of seven major religions. The professor, Grant Hardy, is a professor of History and Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina at Asheville. On Friday, April 12, we will be screening lectures 23-26 in the series, pertaining to the Jain, Neo-Confucian and Daoist traditions:

- 23. The Three Caverns of Daoist Scriptures
- 24. Related Traditions – Shinto and Tenrikyo
- 25. Christian Testaments Old and New
- 26. Gospels and Acts

These films are being screened courtesy of The Teaching Company, <http://www.thegreatcourses.com>.

Admission is free.
