Sacred Texts of the World is a 36-lecture series that discusses a broad range of religious texts of seven major religions. We are closing out this series with the last two lectures:

- 35. Secular Scripture – U.S. Constitution
- 36. Heavenly Books, Earthly Connections

Understanding Japan – A Cultural History is a 24-lecture series discussing the development of Japanese culture over the last two millennia. This series is being taught by Mark Ravina, a professor at Emory University. We will be starting this series with the first two lectures:

- 1. Japan – A Globally Engaged Island Nation
- 2. Understanding Japan Through Ancient Myths

These films are being screened courtesy of The Teaching Company,
