An old Buddhist monk is living on a floating temple in the middle of breathtaking scenery, and a young boy comes into his life. The monk raises the child, who becomes his protégé. Later, the boy grows up and falls in love with a young woman who visits the temple for a cure.

“Award – winning Korean writer/director Kim Ki-duk has crafted a lushly exotic yet universal story about the human spirit and its evolution, from innocence to Love, Evil to Enlightenment, and ultimately to Rebirth that Elizabeth Weitzman of the New York Daily News calls ‘a beautifully composed canvas, the sort of film one falls into, resurfacing at the end with great reluctance.’” Spoken in Korean with English subtitles. 102 Minutes.

Admission is free.
